

PIANO

Welcome to the PIANO Section.
Please take the time to read it thoroughly as this syllabus is NEW.

Competition Rules

The Adjudicator's decisions are final and no communication is allowed between the adjudicator and parent or teacher at any time.

The general rules apply to this section as well as the piano-specific rules below.

Grade levels and fees for piano:

Fees to enter classes are as follows:

- preliminary – 3: $23
- 4 - 6: $ 25
- 7 – 9: $ 28
- 10, AR: $35 (max 15 minutes)
- 10, AR: $60 (max 25 minutes)
- adults: $25 (max 8 minutes)
- duets and ensembles: ($40 total)
- Family Group $30

All entries will be done on line, at the website given in the general rules.

Each entry must be for one class, and must include:

- the class number
- RCM level of the piece
- student's age, (or "adult" for adult class 701). All ages are welcomed at all classes, except for the Provincials masterclass which has additional age and level requirements.
- performance time

Piano-specific rules

1. Entrants may enter a maximum of four classes, not including sight reading.
2. Classes for Preliminary - level 3 will be adjudication only.
3. Students will be given a verbal and written adjudication at the end of each programmed class. This may include a placing at the adjudicator's discretion for levels 4 - ARCT.
4. Major awards may be given to piano students, levels 4 - ARCT, who enter at least 3 classes, not including sight reading.

Rules cont'd

5. A Provincials masterclass (classes 801 - 804) entry is mandatory for students wishing to compete in the Provincial Performing Arts Festival. (Additional qualifying rules are found there.)
6. Memorization is strongly recommended for all participants. Entrants wishing to be considered for Provincials or major awards may use sheet music (printed or digital) for their third and/or fourth entries.
7. Only original materials may be used, excepting pages copied for page turns. Legally obtained downloaded materials are, of course, acceptable.
8. An original copy of sheet music must be provided to the adjudicator, with measure numbers marked at the beginning of each system.
9. Entrants in all classes are eligible to be chosen by the adjudicator to perform in the Gala and/or Highlights concerts, and must be prepared to do so.
10. Performance order will be according to the program which will be available prior to the Piano section performances. Approximate times will be given and attempts made to meet needs of students. Please indicate any special requests on the entry form.
11. Students should introduce their piece including name and composer.

Piano Classes
